

BRAQCON 2019

BRAQCON 2019 will be a unique platform for deliberating current topics in brackishwater ecosystem and sustainable aquaculture. The scientific programme is conceived with a set of invited papers, oral presentations and poster sessions in each of the thematic areas; all in the premise of the Main Hall. There are no parallel sessions arranged for the Thematic Programmes, to maximise the audience and disseminate the scientific contents to the audience. Hence, oral presentations will be limited and the majority of the presentations will be under Poster Sessions. BRAQCON 2019 considers ORAL and POSTER presentations are of equal weightage.
